

I strongly encourage the FCC to strengthen, not weaken, its controls to limit media ownership. The public has a right to access diverse public opinions and that can only be done through diverse use of the airwaves. Do not allow but a few, or one, company to control our media.

Thank you.